

For the first time, CONEX, the specialist known for the dematerialization of customs data exchanges in Europe, will be present at the general trade fair: Solutions DEMAT'expo.

A unique expertise in the dematerialization of data interchange between trad

With 25 years' experience in dematerialized exchanges between the private sector and administrations a

"In 25 years, CONEX has become a veritable facilitator of EDI exchanges between private players", exp

On the stand, the CONEX products associated with the customs declaration sector will be presented :

- DELTApass via conex, dematerialization of customs procedures.
- ICS via conex, security data exchange for all goods imported into the EU customs territory.
- EMCS via conex, data exchange between economic operators and EU customs administrations fo
- ZEN via conex, digital preservation and traceability solution for EDI exchanges carried out in the co

These solutions demonstrate a competence which covers all technical and legal aspects of digitaliz

"CONEX endeavors to provide its clients with only reliable data processing solutions and recommenda