

The collaboration between CONEX and MGI deals with import customs procedures. The objective is to automate operations for CONEX customers, in order to optimize customs declarations.

A strategic partner

This summer, CONEX and MGI began development on connectors to enable communication between th

“This represents an enormous collaborative effort between our two development teams,” underlines Alb

Immediate time-saving for CONEX customers

The work of operators, forwarders among others, will be simplified by the implementation of this IT gatew

Thanks to this partnership, the information between the CONEX customs solution and MGI’s AP+ will be